Editor Note: International Journal of Clinical & Medical Informatics

Editor Note

I am pleased to introduce to you the International Journal of Clinical & Medical Informatics (ISSN: 2582-2268) provides an international platform for researchers and authors for the publication of original results and interpretive reviews on the field of clinical and medical informatics. This journal is Open Access whose objective is to publish the most complete and reliable source of information on current discoveries and developments in the form of original articles, review articles, case reports, brief communications, etc. in all areas of the field and doing them freely available online.

We are pleased to announce that during the year 2020, all issues of volume 2 were published online on time.

In summary, on behalf of the Editorial Board, I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of the editor and associate editors also during the final editing of the published articles and the support provided by the editors: Dr. Martin Besse to get the IJCMI numbers out on time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all IJCMI authors, reviewers, editor, adviser and editorial committee, office managers for their support in publishing another IJCMI volume and I look forward to your tireless support in publishing IJCMI Volume 3 during the year of 2020 December. Your cooperation will be highly appreciated. If you have any questions or suggestions, please Email me or the journal coordinator directly at: editor.ijcmi@clinscischolars.com. I look forward to hearing from you.
